The Right Hon. Earl Russell has graciously favoured J. T. Davenport with the following:—

"Extract of a despatch from Mr. Webb, H.B.M.'s Consul at Manilla, dated Sept. 17, 1864:—"'The Remedy most efficacious in its effects (in Epidemic Cholera) has been found to be Chlorodyne, and with a small quantity given to me by Dr. Burke I have saved several lives.'"

CAUTION.

CHLORODYNE.

Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. WOOD stated that Dr. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely; and mean no other than Dr. Browne's. —See "Times," July 13th, 1864.

The Public are therefore cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

This invaluable Remedy produces quiet refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively, using it in great quantities in the following diseases:—

Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, Neuralgia, Diarrhœa, Rheumatism, Spasms, &c.

EXTRACTS FROM MEDICAL OPINIONS.

From Dr. MONTGOMERY, late Inspector of Hospitals, Bombay:—"Chlorodyne is a most valuable remedy in neuralgia, asthma, and dysentery; to it I fairly owe my restoration to health, after eighteen months' severe suffering and when all other medicines had failed."

From W. VERSALIUS PETTIGREW, M.D.:—"I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an anti-spasmodic and sedative. I have used it in consumption, asthma, diarrhœa, and other diseases, and am most perfectly satisfied with the results."

From Mr. C. RICHARDS:—"Messina, Nov. 23, 1867. My father, the British Vice-Consul at this port, has spoken very highly of Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in his Report to the British Government of the Epidemic Cholera in Messina, 1867, and really its efficacy is wonderful."

CHLORODYNE, the GREAT REMEDY for CHOLERA.

(See Report in the "Times," September 6th, from the Malta Correspondent, who states, August 24th, that "108 cases and 81 deaths occurred at Messina; 50,000 people fled from the town, which is in a most deplorable condition, that Chlorodyne has been found most efficacious as a remedy, and a number of persons are reported to have been saved by its use.")

Now, as there are various imitations sold under the name of Chlorodyne, containing Indian hemp, morphia, &c., ingredients highly adverse to the cure of cholera, the public are cautioned against the use of any compound under the name of Chlorodyne unless it bears the name of Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE, who coined the word Chlorodyne to designate his wonderful discovery, which he fully tested for many years in Her Majesty's service before introducing it to the public, the wonderful success of which has given rise to various imitations, totally different to genuine Chlorodyne. See the decision of Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood, reported in the "Times," July 13th, 1864. The extraordinary medical reports on the efficacy of Chlorodyne render it a subject of most vital importance that the public should obtain the genuine, which is now sold under the protection of the Government of Great Britain, authorizing a stamp, bearing the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne," without which none is genuine.

Sold in bottles, 1s. 1½d., 2s. 9d., and 4s. 6d., by all Chemists.

Extract from "The Morning Post," August 21, 1873.

A WEST-END PRIVATE HOTEL.—Few persons but those who have availed themselves of the comfort and convenience of a Private Hotel, conducted on a liberal scale, can appreciate the advantages of such a temporary home.

This class of Hotel is more frequently to be met with in London than in any Continental or American city, and there are certain localities in London which favour their popularity with the upper classes of society. For example, in Dover Street, Piccadilly, there is one of long-established reputation, known by the name of Cowan's Hotel, but now possessed by Mr. Denyer.

It would seem as if it had been built for this especial purpose, as a long passage connects under the same roof one house with an entrance in Albemarle Street, and another with an exit or entrance in Dover Street. Each house contains suites of fine, large, and lofty rooms, beautifully furnished, and replete with all the conveniences of a private dwelling. The general supervision of the establishment is under the immediate care of Mrs. Denyer (formerly Miss Cowan), and whether a suite of rooms is occupied by a family or an individual visitor, there is the same regard to the comforts and requirements of each.

The ménage is at the option and according to individual orders, and is, of course, of the very best character that the London markets can supply.

WINES.

For wines, there is from the fact of Mr. DENYER being a wine merchant with very large connections among the nobility, an inimitable choice of the best brands and from the first shippers.

The wine cellars are, however, in a very distinct locality, being situated in Regent Street, and occupying a subterraneous area extending in breadth from the west to the east or opposite side of this spacious street.

Sparkling and still wines of every class which Germany and the champagne districts can furnish, the red wines of Portugal, and the white wines of Spain are not only to be found in these cellars in every variety, but Messrs. Denyer and Co. have a special reputation of possessing the largest stock of the choice and delicate sherries of Sanlucar which can perhaps be found in London.

These last named wines are a speciality in themselves, because it is well known that Sanlucar is the native soil of Amontillado, Manzanilla, and all that class of dry sherries which are so highly recommended for their pure, natural, and nutritive properties. They are also importers of

The New Sparkling Wine, Rhinegau Champagne.

NOTE.—Suites of Rooms specially adapted for Wedding Breakfasts. Estimates given for large or small parties, inclusive of Wines if required.

Special advantages are offered in respect of Wines, which can be purchased at the cellars, 95, REGENT STREET, at Merchants' prices, paying the Hotel a small charge for Corkage.

HISTORY

OFFICES OF THE SECRETARIES OF STATE,

1253 TO 1882.

THE earliest mention of a Secretary to The Sovereign occurs in the 37th year of the reign of Henry III, 1253.

There was only one Principal Secretary of State until the 30th year of the reign of Henry VIII, 1539, when the number was increased to two, both being of equal rank and authority.

Upon the union with Scotland, in the 6th year of the reign of Queen Anne, 1708, a third Principal Secretary of State was added, viz., for Scotch Affairs, but this appointment ceased in January, 1746.

In the 8th year of the reign of George III, January 20, 1768, a Principal Secretary of State for the American or Colonial Department was added, who was styled "Secretary of State for the Colonies," but this appointment was abolished in 1782 (Act 25 Geo. III. c. 82).

At the time when only two Principal Secretaries of State existed, the duties were divided between the North and South Departments—the Northern Department, or Province, included the Low Countries, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Poland, Russia, &c.; and the Southern Department, or Province, France, Switzerland, Italy, Spain Portugal, and Turkey, &c.

In the 17th year of the reign of George III, March 27, 1782, the terms "Northern" and "Southern" were discontinued; when the duties were divided between the "Home" and "Foreign" Departments—the affairs of Ireland and the Colonies devolving upon the elder of the two Secretaries.

In the 29th year of the reign of George III, July 17, 1794, a Principal Secretary of State for War was appointed; and the business of the Colonies, which had hitherto been carried on at the Home Department, was transferred to that Secretary, March 17, 1801.

In the 17th year of the reign of Victoria, June 12, 1854, a Fourth Principal Secretary of State was appointed, when the business of the War Department was separated from the Colonial Department.

In the 22nd year of the reign of Victoria, September 2, 1858, on the abolition of the East India Company's Charter, a Fifth Principal Secretary of State was appointed for the Affairs of India.

There are now Five Secretaries of State, viz., for the Home, Foreign, Colonial, War, and India Departments.

FORM OF INSTRUCTIONS TO PERSONS WHO MAY DESIRE TO COMMUTE CIVIL COMPENSATION ALLOWANCES, UNDER THE PENSIONS COMMUTATION ACT, 1871 (34 and 35 Vict., c. 36).

1. Any person who has retired or has been removed from a public civil office* in consequence of the abolition of his office, or for the purpose of facilitating improvements in the organization of the Department to which he belonged, to whom an annual pension has been granted by way of compensation for such retirement or removal, and who may be desirous of commuting such pension under the Pensions Commutation Act of 1871, must make application in writing to the head or heads of the Department to which he belonged, stating his desire so to commute, and furnishing information as to his age, the office which he held, and the amount of his compensation allowance.

2. If the head of the Department to which he belonged shall think proper to recommend the commutation under the fourth clause of the 4th section of the Act, the person will be so informed by the head of the Department, and his application will be forwarded to the Commutation Board for consideration.

3. The person will then receive further instructions from that Board.

4. The Commutation Board will require the person to give such information as to his health and habits as is usual in the case of persons proposing to assure their lives in assurance companies, and he will be required to submit himself for personal examination at the office of the Board at the National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, in the City of London.

5. The basis of the commutation will be the following Table, subject to an addition of years of age in the case of impaired lives.

6. The amount of money to be paid in commutation of the pension will be fixed by the Treasury on the recommendation of the Commutation Board. The applicant will then be informed of the amount, and he will have the option of withdrawing his application on the payment of a fee of 3*l.* 3*s.* within 30 days after receiving that notice.

7. If the applicant shall not withdraw his application and pay the above fee within that period the decision will be considered final, and the commutation of pension will take place absolutely.

PRECEDENCE OF DIPLOMATIC AGENTS.

(In force, January 1882.)

REGULATIONS annexed to the VIENNA CONGRESS TREATY, of June 9, 1815.

In order to prevent the inconveniences which have frequently occurred, and which might again arise, from claims of precedence among different Diplomatic Agents, the Plenipotentiaries of the Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris have agreed on the following Articles, and they think it their duty to invite the Plenipotentiaries of other Crowned Heads to adopt the same regulation:—

ARTICLE I.—Diplomatic Agents are divided into three classes:—That of Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios; that of Envoys, Ministers, or other persons accredited to Sovereigns: that of Chargés d'Affaires accredited to Ministers for Foreign Affairs.

II. Ambassadors, Legates, or Nuncios, only, have the representative character.

III. Diplomatic Agents on an extraordinary mission have not, on that account, any superiority of rank.

IV. Diplomatic Agents shall take precedence in their respective classes, according to the date of the official notification of their arrival. The present Regulation shall not cause any innovation with regard to the Representatives of the Pope.

V. A uniform mode shall be determined in each State for the reception of Diplomatic Agents of each class.

VI. Relations of consanguinity, or of family alliance between Courts, confer no precedence on their Diplomatic Agents. The same rule also applies to political alliances.

VII. In Acts or Treaties between several Powers which grant alternate precedence, the order which is to be observed in the signatures shall be decided by lot between the Ministers.

The present Regulation is inserted in the Protocol of the Plenipotentiaries of the Eight Powers who signed the Treaty of Paris at their sitting of the 19th March, 1815.

Signed in the alphabetical order of the Courts by the Principal Plenipotentiaries of Austria, (Espagne) Spain, France, Great Britain, Portugal, Prussia, Russia, Sweden.

Protocol of Conference of the Five Powers. Aix-la-Chapelle, November 21, 1818. (Ministers Resident.)

In order to avoid inconvenient discussions which might in future arise upon a point of Diplomatic Etiquette, which appears not to have been anticipated in the Annex to the Treaty of Vienna, whereby questions of precedence were regulated, it is agreed between the Five Courts, that Ministers Resident accredited to them shall form, with respect to their precedence, an intermediate class between Ministers of the Second Class and Chargés d'Affaires.

PRECEDENCE between CONSULS and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS.

(In force, January 1882.)

The Consular Service consists of the following Classes:
Agents and Consuls-General;
Consuls-General;
Consuls;
Vice-Consuls;
Consular-Agents.

Agents and Consuls-General rank with, but after, Rear-Admirals, and Major-Generals.

Consuls-General rank with, but after, Brigadiers and Commodores.

Consuls rank with, but after, Colonels, and Captains, R.N., of three years' standing, and before all other such Captains.

Vice-Consuls rank with, but after, Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants of eight years, and Majors.

Consular-Agents rank with, but after, Captains in the Army, and other Lieutenants and Navigating Lieutenants.

Consuls will take rank amongst their Colleagues at the Port of their Residence, in accordance with the Rules prescribed by the Congress of Vienna for Diplomatic Agents; viz.: seniority according to Official Title and priority of arrival.

PRECEDENCE between MEMBERS of the DIPLOMATIC SERVICE and NAVAL and MILITARY OFFICERS attached to EMBASSIES and MISSIONS Abroad.

(In force, January 1882.)

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank above that of Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Head of the Mission for the time being, whatever his designation may be.

Naval and Military Officers holding naval or military rank as Post Captain in the Navy or Colonel in the Army, or naval or military rank of a lower order, who may be attached to Her Majesty's Embassies or Missions for special purposes, have Place and Precedence next in succession to the Secretary of Embassy or of Legation.

Commissioners, the probationary period will be prolonged until they have been fulfilled.

Commissions as Third Secretaries, and a Salary of £150 a-year.

IV. and V. Commissions as Third Secretaries under Her Majesty's Sign-Manual will be granted to Attachés, on the termination of the probationary period, and on the fulfilment of the conditions specified in the present Regulations, together with a Salary at the rate of 150*l.* a-year, provided that their general character and conduct, during the time they have served, have been satisfactory, and that the Minister under whom they have last served certifies that as far as he has the means of forming an opinion, they understand and speak French well, and also one other foreign language.

Allowance of £100 a year for Knowledge of Public Law.

VI. Third Secretaries who may after examination satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners that they possess a competent knowledge of public law, will receive while serving in that class an additional allowance of 100*l.* a-year. (Those who may be desirous of being so examined should apply to the Foreign Office, which will make arrangements with the Civil Service Commissioners for their examination.) [See also page 242.]

Second Secretaries.

VII. Second Secretaries will constitute an Intermediate Class between 3rd Secretaries and Secretaries of Legation. They will receive a minimum salary of 300*l.* a-year, increasing by 15*l.* a-year until it reaches a maximum of 450*l.* a-year. But Second Secretaries at those posts to which a higher salary than 300*l.* a-year is assigned will not receive this annual increment until they shall be entitled by length of service to a salary greater than that so assigned.

Employment and Designation of Second and Third Secretaries.

VIII. Secretaries of the Second and Third Classes may, at the discretion of the Secretary of State, be appointed indiscriminately to serve either in an Embassy or Mission, without reference to their previous employment in one or other of them. They are to be designated as Third or Second Secretary in the specific Embassy or Mission in which they may at that time be employed, but not as Third or Second Secretary of Embassy or Legation.

Special Allowance of £100 a-year for Languages.

IX. Any Secretary of Embassy or of Legation, Second or Third Secretary or Attaché on probation, who shall be reported by the head of the Mission in which he is employed to possess a competent knowledge, colloquial or otherwise, for ordinary purposes, of the Russian, Turkish, Persian, Japanese, or Chinese language, while serving in any country where such language is vernacular, shall receive a special allowance of 100*l.* a-year over and above any other salary or allowance which he may be in receipt of.

Rules as to Pensions of the Fourth Class.

X. In virtue of Her Majesty's Commissions, the service of Second and Third Secretaries will count for their pensions, under the Act of 32 & 33 Vict., cap. 43, from the date of the issue of their first Commission; but the amount of pension to be assigned to them will be calculated, so long as they remain Second or Third Secretaries, for each year that has elapsed since the date of their first Commission, at one-thirtieth part of the last salary of which they were in receipt at the time of the pension being granted, provided that no pension shall continue to be issued to a person not incapacitated by ill-health, medically certified, who may decline active service before he has reached the sixtieth year of his age, after which age no person shall be required to serve as Second or Third Secretary.

Period of Service in the same Embassy or Mission.

XI. Second or Third Secretaries and Attachés, as a general rule, will not be employed for more than two years in the same Embassy or Mission, exclusive of the periods during which they may have been absent on leave. But the Secretary of State reserves to himself full power to extend the term beyond two years in every case in which he judges that there are special public reasons for so doing.

Salary of Secretary of Legation.

XII. The minimum salary of a Secretary of Legation will be 500*l.* a year.

*Travelling Expenses.

XIII. Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, Second and Third Secretaries and Attachés, will, on their first appointment, or on any subsequent removal for promotion, or other public reason, be allowed their actual travelling expenses by land, or the actual amount of their passages by sea, either from England to their post, or from one foreign post to another (in the case of Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, and of Second Secretaries, the like expenses will be allowed to them for one servant, if they have one); and they will further be allowed subsistence money for themselves, but not for their servant, at the rate of one pound a day, while travelling by land, and by sea if subsistence is not included in the passage money. In the event of a passage being afforded to Secretaries or Attaches on board one of Her Majesty's ships of war, the alowances made will be in conformity with the Admiralty Regulations; but the travelling expenses and subsistence of the families of Secretaries or Attachés will not be allowed.

No allowance will be made to Members of the Diplomatic Service for journeys undertaken for their own convenience, in pursuance of leave of absence.

Secretaries and Attachés may be required to carry Despatches.

XIV. In the case of any journey of which the expense is to be allowed, all Secretaries and Attachés will be bound to take charge of despatches, if required; and in that case they will be expected to perform the journey without delaying on the road.

Members of the Diplomatic Service to go to any Posts to which they may be Appointed.

XV. It is to be distinctly understood that, in future, all the Members of the Diplomatic Service will be expected to take their turn in whatever part of the world their services may be required; and that, except as regards Tehran and Pekin, where no accommodation can be procured for married men, every Secretary or Attaché, whether married or unmarried, must be prepared to go to the post at which the requirements of the public service demand his presence, and to which he may be appointed.

Interchange of Employment between Second and Third Secretaries, and Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office.

XVI. The Secretary of State, should he see occasion, will, for the advantage of the public service, allow Second and Third Secretaries, and Attachés to interchange for a time their duties with Clerks of the two Junior Classes in the Foreign Office; the several parties being bound, for the whole period through which the interchange extends, in every respect to perform the duties and to submit to the obligations attaching to the situation which they may temporarily occupy.

The Secretary of State will, moreover, if he sees reason to do so, direct such temporary interchange of duties to be made, irrespective of the wishes of the parties, between Second or Third Secretaries, or Attachés, and Clerks in the Foreign Office; or he will direct such persons to be employed for a time, at home or abroad, without any interchange, making in either case any allowance to such parties that he may consider just and reasonable.

In the case of temporary interchanges between Secretaries and Clerks, they will respectively rank, in the Embassy or Mission, and Foreign Office, as the case may be, during the period for which the interchange shall last, after the Junior in the class of Secretaries or Clerks to which either of them belongs.

A First-class Junior Clerk who may be permanently transferred to the Diplomatic Service will receive a Commission as Second Secretary; a Second Class Junior Clerk will similarly receive a Commission as Third Secretary.

Junior Clerks in the Foreign Office temporarily employed in a Special or in an Ordinary Embassy or Mission, will in like manner receive Acting Commissions as Second or Third Secretaries, as the Secretary of State may determine.

Annual Reports on Conduct of Junior Secretaries and Attachés.

XVII. Heads of Missions will be required to report annually, on the 1st of January in each year to the Secretary of State the mode in which, during so much of the preceding year as they shall have served in such Mission, each Second and Third Secretary and Attaché in his Mission has discharged his public duty, and such reports will be duly considered before any promotion or increase of pay is accorded to the persons to whom they apply. These reports will be considered to be strictly confidential, and it will rest with the Secretary of State to determine as to extenuating circumstances when they are unfavourable.

Promotion and Appointments to High Diplomatic Posts.

XVIII. The Secretary of State reserves to himself the power to recommend to the Queen to name any person, even though not in the Diplomatic Service, for the higher and more responsible posts in it, and, generally, in regard to all promotions whatever in the Diplomatic Service, the Secretary of State will not be restricted by claims founded on seniority or membership of the profession from making any such selection as on his own responsibility he may deem right.

Duration of Appointments of Heads of Missions.

XIX. The duration of the appointments of Heads of Missions at foreign Courts shall not exceed, though it may be less than, five years; and at the expiration of five years the question of reappointment, though in that case not involving fresh credentials, or of transfer to another Mission, shall be open for consideration. Members of the Diplomatic Service, on attaining the age of 70 years, shall be retired on the pension for which their services may qualify them.

Deductions to be made from Salaries of Heads of Missions on Leave of Absence.

XX. With a view to relieve the Heads of Missions on leave of absence on private grounds, the period of sixty days of ordinary leave will reckon from their arrival in this country only, but the deduction from their salaries required to provide for the allowances of the Acting Chargé d'Affaires according to the Regulations which may be in force at the time being, will date as heretofore from their departure from their posts. On the expiration of the above period of sixty days the deduction will be at the rate of one-half of their salaries. Such period of sixty days may either be one of sixty consecutive days, or of sixty days occurring at intervals in the course of one year beginning on the 1st of January and ending on the 31st of December. But Heads of Missions to whom, on the ground of their having remained uninterruptedly at their posts during the year preceding that in which leave is applied for, an accumulated leave of 120 days may be granted by the Secretary of State will, as in the former case, not be subject to be placed on half salary until after the expiration of that period, reckoned from the date of their arrival in this country. Under the Regulation as now amended, the time required for the return journey will not in either case be reckoned as leave, it being expected that, both as regards the homeward and the outward journey, the direct route shall be chosen, and due expedition used. It must be distinctly understood that Heads of Missions will not be allowed to accumulate more than two years' leave, and that the Secretary of State reserves to himself to withhold this permission as often as he may see fit to do so.

Heads of Missions should further understand that leave of absence will, as a rule, only be granted to them when the Secretary of the Mission may be at his post, or, if absent, may be prepared to return and assume his proper position of Chargé d'Affaires. Second or Third Secretaries should not be placed in charge of Missions unless in cases of pressing emergency, and the previous sanction of the Secretary of State should always be obtained, if possible. The allowances to Second and Third Secretaries when acting as Chargé d'Affaires will be, at Embassies at the rate of 3*l.* a-day, and at Legations at the rate of 2*l.* a-day.*

Addresses of Members of the Diplomatic Service. Notice to be given of Addresses of Persons on Leave of Absence, and in the case of Junior Members of intended departure for their posts.

XXI. Members of the Diplomatic Service of all ranks on leave of absence must leave with or send to the Doorkeeper of the Foreign Office an address to which letters may be sent for them; and Secretaries and Attachés, previously to leaving England to proceed to or return to their posts, must notify the time of their intended departure to one of the Under-Secretaries of State.

Allowances during War or Interruption of Relations.

XXII. Should an Ambassador, Minister, or Secretary of whatever class, by reason of war or other interruption of Diplomatic relations, be withdrawn from active service before his services shall have qualified him for a Diplomatic pension of the class under which he would otherwise come, the Secretary of State will, as he may see fit, recommend that a temporary allowance should be assigned to any such person who cannot otherwise be immediately employed, calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and general character of his services; such allowance, however, to be strictly subject to the condition in regard to employment specified in the XIth section of the Act of 32nd and 33rd Vict., c. 43, and to cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of Diplomatic relations.

Copy of Circular of November 6, 1860.

XXIII. It being very desirable that the Members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service should clearly understand the duties respectively assigned to them, a copy of the Circular instruction on this subject, addressed to the Heads of Missions by Lord John Russell on the 6th November, 1860, is annexed to these Regulations, and the Secretary of State requests that the rules therein laid down may be duly observed.

Foreign Office, January 1, 1880.

* At the four Missions of Berne, Munich, Stuttgardt, and Darmstadt, the allowance remains at the rate of 1*l.* a-day. The allowance at Bucharest is at the rate of one-fourth of the salary of the post.

CIRCULAR ADDRESSED TO THE HEADS OF MISSIONS BY LORD JOHN RUSSELL ON THE 6th NOVEMBER, 1860.

(Annex to Diplomatic Regulations of January 1, 1880.)

My Lord, Foreign Office, November 6, 1860.

Sir,—I have reason to apprehend that some misconception has prevailed in the minds of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as to the nature of the relations between them and their Secretaries and Attachés, and that they have consequently, in many cases, overlooked the fact that the Secretaries and Attachés are public servants appointed by the Secretary of State to perform specific public duties.

It is to be borne in mind that one of the objects for which Secretaries and Attaches are appointed to Embassies and Missions is, that they may be trained up in the junior branches of the Diplomatic Service, and thereby become qualified for filling afterwards higher and more important situations; but this training they cannot receive unless they are employed, according to their several Commissions, in the general business of the Embassy or Mission.

It follows that the Chiefs of Missions should not defeat the above-mentioned purpose by entrusting, at their own discretion, and with reference to their own personal convenience, the management and execution of the public business of their Chanceries to persons out of the regular order. Each member of an Embassy or Mission, whether Secretary, Attaché, or Keeper of the Archives, should hold in the Chancery the position to which he is entitled by office or seniority, and to which he is named by the Secretary of State; and in no case should a junior be arbitrarily preferred to a senior, nor an Attaché to a Secretary, nor a Keeper of the Archives to an Attaché.

A disregard of these principles not only tends to defeat the objects for which the Diplomatic Service is constituted, but is, moreover, among the junior members of that service, a fruitful source of jealousy and disunion.

On these grounds I have thought it expedient, with Her Majesty's approbation, to lay down certain fixed Rules for the regulation of Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations, in which the nature and amount of the business to be transacted renders an adherence to fixed Rules peculiarly important; and I am convinced that if those Rules are strictly attended to, the general interests of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, both present and prospective, will be greatly advanced, and the convenience and comfort of the Chiefs and subordinate members of the service will be essentially promoted.

The principle on which the Rules which I now proceed to lay down are founded is to apply, as far as possible, to Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad the system on which the business of the Foreign Office is carried on at home.

In the Foreign Office the Under Secretaries of State, the Senior and Assistant and Junior Clerks, have their respective duties to perform, and they do perform them without clashing or interfering with each other.

In like manner Her Majesty's Secretaries of Embassy or Legation, the Senior and Junior Paid Attachés, and the Unpaid Attachés, have in Her Majesty's Embassies and Legations their regular and appointed positions and duties; and it is only necessary to bear this analogy in mind, and to carry it out in practice, in order to ensure the efficient and harmonious working of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service abroad.

The manner in which this principle is to be applied will readily occur to such of Her Majesty's Ambassadors and Ministers as are conversant with the working of the system in the Foreign Office; but I consider it desirable to explain its application in detail.

Accordingly, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation must be deemed to hold, as regards the Chief of the Mission, the same position which an Under-Secretary of State holds as regards the Secretary of State, and therefore the whole public business of the Embassy or Mission should pass through his hands, and, subject to the orders of the Chief, should be carried on under his immediate superintendence.

The public and official despatches and papers will, if not opened by the Ambassador or Minister himself upon their arrival, reach him through the Secretary of Embassy or Legation: and the directions of the Chief in regard to all matters of public business will pass through the Secretary, and be executed under his superintendence and control. The principle on which this regulation is founded scarcely needs an explanation, for it is obvious that the public interests require that the Secretary, who may at any moment, in consequence of the absence of the Chief, be called upon to conduct the public business on his own responsibility, should be kept fully informed as to the course of those matters with which he may have to deal.

In the occasional or accidental absence of the Secretary from the residence of the Mission, or from the Chancery, the Senior Attaché in attendance will undertake his duties, so that no inconvenience or delay need arise in the transaction of the public business.

As regards the general duties of Attachés, the Senior will, in the Chancery, occupy the position which a Senior Clerk occupies in the Foreign Office. He will be responsible for the correct performance of the details of the Chancery work; he will assign to the other Attaches their respective portions of it; he will have the general custody of the Cyphers and Decyphers; and he will be responsible for keeping the accounts of the Extraordinary Expenditure, and for submitting them to the Chief of the Embassy or Mission for approval and transmission to England as soon as possible after the expiration of each quarter. Moreover, as stated in my Circular despatch of the 10th February last the Senior Attaché for the time being will, if no other person has, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, been appointed for that special duty, have the custody of the Archives. He will be held responsible for their being kept in proper order; for the correspondence being regularly registered; and for the letters and drafts being properly docketed and filled up before they are consigned to the Archives.

The position and duties of the Keeper of Archives in those Embassies or Missions to which such an officer is attached will correspond with those of the Librarian of the Foreign Office, though his duties in regard to the correspondence will commence at an earlier period than that of that officer. Those duties will be to keep the papers, whether bound or unbound, in good order, so that they may be at any time easily accessible; to see that the papers are at stated intervals bound in volumes; and to make references and Memoranda for the information of the Ambassador or Minister, and for the general requirements of the Chancery.

The order of precedence among the Junior members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service will thus be:—

Secretary of Embassy or Legation;
Paid Attachés;
Unpaid Attachés;
Keeper of Archives; and
Translator, where a Translator is appointed with the sanction of the Secretary of State.

The foregoing Regulations apply exclusively to the transaction of Public and Official business, and are not intended in any way to interfere with the discretion of the Ambassador or Minister as to the arrangements he may make in regard to his private correspondence. I have only to observe on this point, that if the Ambassador or Minister sees occasion to employ one of the Attachés as his Private Secretary, the manner in which such Attaché should be employed in the transaction of the public business of the Embassy or Mission is not to be affected thereby, but is to continue to be governed by the Rules which I have laid down, and must remain in entire subordination to, and under the control of, the Secretary of Embassy or Legation, and of the Attachés holding a superior position to him in the Chancery.

The Secretary of Embassy or Legation, the First Attaché, and the Keeper of the Archives, should be under no restriction as to the hours at which the Chancery shall be open to them, even if any such restriction is habitually placed on other members of the Mission; and they should each have keys of the presses or boxes in which the Archives and Public Papers are kept.

No person must be employed in the transaction of the public business except those who may be actually members of the Embassy or Legation, or whose employment may be specifically sanctioned for a limited period by the Secretary of State.

I have no doubt that a strict adherence to the Rules I have thus laid down will tend to the regular dispatch of public business, and to the maintenance of harmony among the different members of Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service; while it will also be advantageous to the Chiefs of Missions. It is not my intention by these Regulations to prescribe to those Chiefs any obligation of consulting or of being guided by the opinion of any of the subordinate members of their Mission. On those Chiefs rests the responsibillty of the decisions they may come to, and of any course they may determine to pursue, and with them, therefore, must also rest the free choice of the means for arriving at their decisions.

My object in the present communication is to provide that those persons who are appointed by the Secretary of State to definite situations and ranks in Her Majesty's Embassies and Missions shall be employed in the transaction of the public business of such Embassies and Missions in accordance with the purposes for which their appointments have been created.

I am, &c.

J. RUSSELL.

The Queen has been pleased to direct that the following Regulations respecting Foreign Orders and Medals shall be substituted for those now in force. (1855.) (In force, January 1882.)

FOREIGN ORDERS.

1. No Subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Service before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, previous to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Commander-in-Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission, may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realms.

9. When a British subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order he will at any future time be allowed to accept the decoration of a higher class of the same Order, to which he may have become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign service, or in the service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

Foreign Office, May 10, 1855.

FOREIGN MEDALS.

1. Application for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a Foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy, for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander-in-Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the Decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine, or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander-in-Chief, or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING PASSPORTS.

1. Applications for Foreign Office Passports must be made in writing; and inclosed in a cover addressed to "The Chief Clerk, Foreign Office, London," with the word "PASSPORT" conspicuously written on the cover.

2. The charge on the issue of a passport, whatever number of persons may be named in it, is 2*s*. If the applicant reside in the country, and if it is desired that the passport should be sent by post, that sum must be forwarded with the application for the passport by a Post Office order, made payable at the Post Office, Charing Cross, London, to the Chief Clerk of the Foreign Office, Francis B. Alston, Esq. Postage stamps will not be received in payment.

3. Foreign Office Passports are granted only to British-born subjects, or to such foreigners as have become naturalized either by Act of Parliament or by a Certificate of Naturalization granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department. When the party is a "Naturalized British subject," he will be so designated in his passport; and if his certificate of naturalization be dated subsequently to the 24th of August, 1850, and previously to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will be marked as good for one year only; or should the certificate be dated subsequently to the 1st of August, 1858, his passport will in that case be marked as good for six months only, except in cases where a licence for a longer period of residence abroad has been granted by the Secretary of State for the Home Department: but this regulation will not preclude any person whom it affects from obtaining, at the Foreign Office, at any future time, on his producing his old passport, a fresh passport in exchange for it for a further limited period, without being required to pay a fresh charge. A Foreign Office passport granted to a British-born subject, or to a "Naturalized British subject" who has been naturalized by Act of Parliament, or whose certificate of naturalization is dated previously to the 24th of August, 1850, is not limited in point of time, but is available for any time, or for any number of journeys to the Continent. Aliens naturalized as British subjects under the Naturalization Act, 1870 (33 Vict. c. 14), will also receive passports unlimited in point of time, but subject to the qualification mentioned in the 7th Clause of the Act.

4. Passports are granted to all persons either known to the Secretary of State or recommended to him by some person who is known to him; or upon the application of any Banking Firm established in London, or in any part of the United Kingdom; or upon the production of a Certificate of Identity (see subjoined Form) signed by any Mayor, Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister of Religion, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary, resident in the United Kingdom. In certain cases, the production of a Certificate of Birth may be demanded.

5. If the applicant for a passport be a Naturalized British subject, his certificate of naturalization, with his signature subscribed to the oath printed on the third page of it, must be forwarded to the Foreign Office with the certificate of identity granted on his behalf; and his certificate of naturalization will be returned with the passport to the person who may have granted the certificate of identity, in order that he may cause such Naturalized British subject to sign the passport in his presence. The agents at the outports are not authorized to grant passports to naturalized British subjects, and such persons, if resident in London or in the suburbs, must apply personally for their passports at the Foreign Office.

6. Passports are issued at the Foreign Office, between the hours of 11 and 4, on the day following that on which the application for the passport has been received at the Foreign Office.

7. A passport cannot be issued by the Foreign Office, or by an agent at an outport, on behalf of a person already abroad; such person, being a British-born subject, should apply for one to the nearest British Mission or Consulate. A passport cannot be issued abroad to a naturalized British subject, except for a direct journey to England, or in the case of a colonial naturalized subject for a journey back to the colony where he has been naturalized. Neither can a passport granted at the Foreign Office to a naturalized British subject for a limited period be renewed by Her Majesty's Diplomatic or Consular Agents in foreign countries; but only at the Foreign Office.

8. The bearer of every passport granted by the Foreign Office should sign his passport as soon as he receives it: without such signature either the visa may be refused, or the validity of the passport questioned abroad. Travellers who may have any intention of visiting the Russian Empire at any time in the course of their travels are particularly and earnestly advised not to quit England without having had their passports visés at the Russian Consulate in London, 17, Great Winchester-street, E.C. Persons proceeding to Cuba, Portugal, or Turkey, should also have their passports visés at the Spanish Consulate, 155, Fenchurch-street; at the Portuguese Consulate, 8, St. Mary Axe; and at the Turkish Embassy, 1, Bryanstone-square, respectively. Travellers about to proceed to any other country need not obtain the visa of the Diplomatic or Consular Agents of such country, resident in the United Kingdom.

N.B.—Although British subjects are now free to enter Belgium, France, Germany, Holland, Italy, Denmark, Sweden, and Norway, without passports, and the rules about passports have been virtually relaxed in several other countries, nevertheless, British subjects about to visit the Continent are recommended not to omit to provide themselves with passports, for even in those countries where they are no longer obligatory, they are found to be convenient, as offering a ready means of identification, and more particularly when letters have to be claimed at a poste restante.

Model Form of Certificate of Identity, to be written out on a separate sheet and signed by the person giving it, as also by the person in whose behalf it is granted.

(Date of Place and Day of the Month.)

The Undersigned, Mayor of (Magistrate, Justice of the Peace, Minister, Physician, Surgeon, Solicitor, or Notary as the case may be), residing at hereby certifies that A. B. (Christian and surname to be written at length), whose signature is written at foot, is a British subject, / a naturalized British subject, and requires a passport to enable him to proceed to / to travel on the Continent (accompanied, as the case may be, by his wife and children, with their tutor, named C. D. (Christian and surname to be written at length), a British subject, / a naturalized British subject, and governess, and maid servant [or servants], and man servant [or servants], named E. F., a British subject [or subjects], and courier, named G. H., a naturalized British subject.)

Provided that this repeal shall not affect any pensions now payable under the said Act; and those pensions shall be paid out of the Consolidated Fund, and the accounts thereof shall be laid before Parliament in the same manner as if this Act had not passed.

5. After the commencement of this Act all salaries, allowances, and pensions (other than pensions granted before the commencement of this Act) payable to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament, and shall be paid on such days and in such manner as the Treasury may, with the consent of the Secretary of State, from time to time appoint.

Amounts of Diplomatic Pensions.

6. After the commencement of this Act the Treasury, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, may grant pensions during life to persons in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, not exceeding the salary which the pensioner may be receiving at the time that his active employment ceases, and not exceeding the following amounts; namely:

(1.) 1,700*l.* per annum for a 1st class pension.
(2.) 1,300*l.* per annum for a 2nd class pension.
(3.) 900*l.* per annum for a 3rd class pension.
(4.) 700*l.* per annum for a 4th class pension.

7. With respect to the qualifications for pensions under this Act, the following provisions shall have effect:

(1.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of any class, until the expiration of 15 years from the date of his first commission, and unless he has actually served in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 10 years:

(2.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 1st class unless he has been an Ambassador, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 3 years:

(3.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 2nd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the first class, and in that capacity has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

(4.) A person shall not be qualified for receiving a pension of the 3rd class unless he has been an Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary on a Mission of the second class, or a Minister Plenipotentiary, or a Minister Resident, or a Chargé d'Affaires and Consul-General in some foreign State or States, or a Chargé d'Affaires in some foreign State or States, where no other Diplomatic Representative is usually appointed to reside on behalf of Her Majesty, or an Agent and Consul-General in some foreign State or States where his duties have been generally of a political character, and in one or more of those capacities has actually resided in some foreign State or States, either continuously or on different occasions, during a time amounting in the aggregate to 5 years:

(5.) A period of residence in any capacity which, if continued, would be a qualification for any class of pension may count as part of the qualification for a lower class of pension.

Pension to Invalided Secretaries.

8. Where a person holding a commission as Second or Third Secretary in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, and having served in such capacities, or one of them, for a period not less than five years, is constrained, from infirmity of mind or body, to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him an allowance during his life, not exceeding for each year of his service in the said capacities, or one of them (if he has only served in one), one-thirtieth part of the amount of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Allowance in case of Bodily Injury.

9. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, by reason of severe bodily injury, occasioned without his own default in the discharge of his duty, is constrained to leave that service before the completion of the period which would qualify him for a pension under the other provisions of this Act, the Treasury may grant to him a gratuity not exceeding the amount of three months' salary for every two years of service, or a pension not exceeding ten-sixtieths of the annual salary which he may be receiving at the time that he leaves the service.

Temporary Pension on Rupture of Diplomatic Relations.

10. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service, who is serving in any foreign State in any capacity, and is, by reason of war or any interruption of diplomatic relations, withdrawn from active service before he has completed the term of service and period of residence which, under the provisions of this Act, would entitle him to a pension for having served in such capacity, the Treasury, at the request of the Secretary of State, may grant to him a temporary allowance calculated on the rate of pension which he would have earned if he had continued to reside in such capacity, regard being had to the length and character of his services.

Every such allowance shall cease from the date of the ratification of a Treaty of Peace or the renewal of diplomatic relations.

Forfeiture of Pension on Refusal to Serve again.

11. If any person who is in receipt of a pension or temporary allowance under this Act, and has not attained the age of sixty years, and is not incapacitated by infirmity of mind or body (proved to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State, by a medical certificate or otherwise), refuses, when required so to do by the Secretary of State, to proceed to any Mission which is of the same rank as that in respect of which his pension was granted, or to some Mission of higher rank, he shall forfeit his right to the pension and allowance.

Suspension of Payment on Holding other Offices.

12. Where a person having any pension or allowance under this Act is appointed to any office of profit under the Crown, or to any office the salary of which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund or moneys provided by Parliament, whether such office is in the United Kingdom or not, his pension and allowance, so long as he continues to hold such office, shall, if the emoluments of such office are equal to or larger than the pension or allowance, be suspended, and if the emoluments of such office are less than the pension or allowance, be diminished by the amount of such emoluments.

Determination of Class of Missions.

13. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time to determine the foreign States the Envoys Extraordinary and Ministers Plenipotentiary at which are thereafter to be deemed on First and Second Class Missions respectively for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Such determination shall be signified in writing under the hand of the Secretary of State to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament within fourteen days after the signing thereof, if Parliament be then sitting, and if Parliament be not then sitting, within fourteen days after the commencement of the next session.

The arrangement existing at the commencement of this Act as to such First and Second Class Missions shall, until and except so far as altered under the provisions of this section, continue in force for the purposes of a pension under this Act.

Employment beyond Limits of State.

14. Where a person in Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service is actually employed beyond the limits of the foreign State in which, under the terms of his credentials or commission he should properly reside, and is so employed on a special diplomatic mission or service, whether in or out of Her Majesty's dominions, or (being a Second or Third Secretary) is so employed for the advantage of the public service in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, he shall, for the purposes of a pension under this Act, be deemed, during the time that he is so actually employed, to have been actually residing in such foreign State.

Pension on Transfer from Civil (or Consular) to Diplomatic Service, and vice versâ.

15. Where a person in the Consular Service or in any other branch of the Civil Service of Her Majesty is appointed to some employment in the Diplomatic Service, or where a person in the Diplomatic Service is appointed to some employment in the Civil Service of the State in the Department of Foreign Affairs in London, and such person may suffer prejudice in regard to his retiring allowance by reason of his not continuing in his former service, the Treasury may award to him, on his retirement from active service, such pension or superannuation allowance under this Act and the Superannuation Act, 1859, or one of them, as in their opinion will prevent his suffering such prejudice and is just, having regard to his services; but save as aforesaid a person receiving a pension under this Act shall not be entitled to any superannuation allowance under the Superannuation Act, 1859. (22 & 23 Vict., cap. 26.)

Pension, &c., to be Free from Taxes.

16. Every pension, allowance, and gratuity under this Act shall be paid to the person entitled to the same without any abatement or deduction in respect of any taxes or duties at present existing, except the tax upon income.

Pensioner may Sit in House of Commons.

17. A pension under this Act shall not disqualify the holder for being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

An Act to remove doubts as to the Qualification of PERSONS HOLDING CIVIL SERVICE PENSIONS, OR RECEIVING SUPERANNUATION ALLOWANCES, TO SIT IN PARLIAMENT.

32 & 33 Vict., cap. 15.—24 June, 1869.

WHEREAS the Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., Chapter 24, and of the 22nd year of Her Majesty, Chapter 26, regulate the conditions on which pensions, compensations, and allowances shall be made to persons in respect of their having held civil offices in Her Majesty's service:

And whereas doubts have arisen as to whether such pensions, compensations, or allowances, being those of reward and recompense for civil services authorized by Parliament, come within the provisions of the Act of the 6th year of Queen Anne, Chapter 7, which renders any person holding a pension from the Crown during pleasure incapable of being elected or of sitting and voting as a Member of the House of Commons:

Be it therefore enacted; and it is hereby enacted and declared by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same as follows:

1. That pensions, compensations, or allowances granted for civil services according to the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV. and the 22nd year of Her Majesty, or any other Act or Acts whatever, shall not disqualify the holder from being elected or sitting or voting as a member of the House of Commons.

2. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect any of the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the 4th and 5th years of King William IV., and 22nd Victoria, Chapter 26, or of the Act of the 20th and 21st years of Her Majesty, Chapter 37.

CIVIL SERVICE AND CONSULAR PENSIONS.

(1.) An Act to alter, amend, and consolidate the Laws for regulating the Pensions, Compensations, and Allowances to be made to Persons in respect of their having held Civil Offices in His Majesty's Service.

4 & 5 Will. IV., c. 24.—25 July, 1834.*

Pensions to the First Lord of the Treasury, Secretaries of State, Chancellor of the Exchequer, First Lord of the Admiralty, President of the India Board, President of the Board of Trade.

I. Whereas by an Act passed in the 57th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George III [cap. 65], to enable His Majesty to recompense the services of persons holding or who have held certain high and efficient civil offices, His Majesty is empowered to grant pensions, as therein provided, to persons who shall have served His Majesty, his heirs or successors, in the offices therein mentioned: And whereas by an Act passed in the 6th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George IV, for amending the said recited Act, it is enacted, that the several other offices therein particularly described shall be deemed to be comprised in the several classes of offices in the said recited Act respectively specified: And whereas it is expedient that the amount of the pensions by the said two Acts authorized to be granted should as to future pensions be reduced, and the conditions under which the same shall be granted be altered and regulated: Be it therefore enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that from and after the passing of this Act no pension to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in any one or more of the offices of First Lord of the Treasury, or one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, or Chancellor of the Exchequer, or First Lord of the Admiralty, or President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, or President of the Committee of Council appointed for the consideration of matters relating to Trade and Foreign Plantations, shall exceed the sum of 2,000*l.* per annum; nor shall any such pension be granted to any person unless he shall have held one or more of the said offices for a period of not less than 2 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 4 such pensions hereafter to be granted be existing or in force at the same time.

[Clauses II. and III. relate to the Chief Secretary of Ireland, Secretary at War, Joint Secretaries of the Treasury, &c.]

Under Secretaries of State, Clerk of the Ordnance, Second Secretary of Admiralty, Secretaries of India Board.

IV. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act the pension, not exceeding 1,000*l.*, authorized by the said recited Act to be granted to any person in respect of his having served in any one or more of the offices of one of the Under Secretaries of State, or Clerk of the Ordnance, or Second Secretary of the Admiralty, or one of the Secretaries of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, shall not be granted to and such person unless he shall have held one or more of the saiy offices for a period of not less than 10 years in the whole, either uninterruptedly or at different times; nor shall any more or greater number than 6 such last-mentioned pensions be existing or in force at the same time.

Regulation as to Period of Service.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in case it shall happen that any person shall have served His Majesty, his heirs, or successors, in more than one class of offices herein-before specified, in respect whereof any pension less than 2,000*l.* may be granted, it shall be lawful to grant, under the Regulations aforesaid, to such person any pension annexed to the highest class of office in which such person may have been employed, whenever the whole period of the service of such person in the several offices in which he shall have been employed shall amount to 10 years, although the period of the service of such person in such highest class shall not have extended to the period of 5 years; provided always, that such person shall have served in such highest class for the period of not less than 3 years; and in cases in which the service of any such person in any class of those offices shall not be sufficient to entitle him to the pension of that class, it shall be lawful to grant him a pension not exceeding 1,000*l.*, provided the period of his aggregate services in that and any inferior class or classes or department of the public service shall amount to 10 years: Provided also, that there shall not be more than the aforesaid number of pensions to that amount existing at the same time.

Declaration to be made by Persons claiming Pensions.

VI. And whereas the principle of the Regulations for granting allowances of this nature is and ought to be founded on a consideration, not only of the services performed by the individual to the State, but of the inadequacy of his private fortune to maintain his station in life: Be it therefore enacted, That from and after the passing of this said Act whenever any person shall seek to obtain any one of the pensions before mentioned his application for that purpose shall be made in writing to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, to which he shall subscribe his name, and which shall contain, not only a statement of the services performed by him, and the grounds on which such pension is claimed, but a specific declaration that the amount of his income from other sources is so limited as to bring him within the intent and meaning of this Act and the principle herein-above declared, and without such declaration no pension as herein-before provided or authorized shall be granted.

Regulations with respect to Pensions contained in recited Acts to apply to Pensions under this Act.

VII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the several regulations with respect to the granting of any of the before-mentioned pensions, and to the receipt thereof by the persons to whom such grants may be made, which are contained in the said recited Act of the 57th years of King George III and the 6th year of King George IV, shall continue in full force and effect, and be applicable to pensions to be granted under the authority of this Act, except so far as any such regulations are altered or repealed by the enactments contained in this Act.

PAPERS SET IN THE FOREIGN OFFICE COMPETITION.*

MAY, 1876.

FOR DICTATION.

Elizabeth had a dark side to her character, yet she surely was a great woman. Of all the sovereigns who exercised a power which was seemingly absolute, but which in fact depended for support on the love and confidence of their subjects, she was by far the most illustrious. It has often been alleged as an excuse for the misgovernment of her successors that they only followed her example, that precedents might be found in the transactions of her reign for persecuting the Puritans, for levying money without the sanction of the House of Commons, for confining men without bringing them to trial, for interfering with the liberty of parliamentary debate. All this may be true. But it is no good plea for her successors: and for this plain reason, that they were her successors. She governed one generation, they governed another; and between the two generations there was almost as little in common as between the people of two different countries. It was by looking at the great general principles of her government, that those who followed her were likely to learn the art of managing untractable subjects. If, instead of searching the records of her reign for precedents of arbitrary punishments, the Stuarts had attempted to discover the fundamental rules which guided her conduct in all her dealings with her people, they would have perceived that their policy was then most unlike to hers, when to a superficial observer it would have seemed most to resemble hers. She gained more honour and more love by the manner in which she repaired her errors than she would have gained by never committing errors. If such a man as Charles the First had been in her place when the whole nation was crying out against the monopolies, he would have given some vague and delusive promises of relief in return for subsidies. When entreated to fulfil his promises, he would have dissolved the Parliament, and imprisoned his leading opponents. The next House of Commons would have been more unmanageable than that which preceded it.

The second passage set for Dictation was similar in character to the first.

Ce ne serait pas là une mauvaise idée si elle était juste; par malheur, elle n'est exacte ni dans l'un ni dans l'autre cas. L'eau, pas plus que l'air, n'appartient à un homme ou à un peuple, et tous les hommes y ont droit. Les forces de la nature sont absolument internationales; elles ont créé le libre-échange bien avant les économistes! Tempêtes, avalanches, inondations ou rosées fécondes, ces présents du ciel n'ont ni temps ni patrie. La mer est un vaste espace liquide traversé par de nombreux habitants, qui n'ont pu se le partager; et les montagnes ou les fleuves traversent, sur la terre, des frontières naturelles que contredisent souvent les conquêtes humaines. Pour apprécier les effets d'un cours d'eau, examinons un instant cette rivière qui traverse notre village; elle va te donner l'idée d'un grand fleuve qui traverse une contrée. Le bien qu'elle procure est général et particulier. Tu arroses ton jardin chaque soir avec cette eau; notre voisine y lave son linge. L'eau s'enfuit et se renouvelle sans que personne ait mesuré les arrosoirs au jardinier, les baquets à la lessiveuse. Cette eau est à tout le monde, comme celle de la pluie qui tombe et baigne tous nos champs à la fois, celui du pauvre comme celui du riche. Voilà l'intérêt général; il est le même pour tous. Partout où se rencontre une eau libre, tous les hommes ont droit d'y tremper leurs lèvres et d'y désaltérer leurs troupeaux. Mais il en va tout autrement quand un industriel veut utiliser la force de l'eau, l'arrêter par une écluse, un barrage, retarder ou précipiter sa chûte.

Maître Gabissol était l'aigle du barreau de Mende; aigle un peu déplumé par cinquante hivers, un peu enroué par ses longs services de cours d'assises. L'audience eut paru manquée, si l'on n'avait aperçu au banc des avocats ou dans les couloirs cette robe lustrée de vétusté, ce visage légèrement grêlé, empreint d'une bonhomie narquoise; cette toque, tantôt retombant sur les yeux, tantôt rejetée en arrière, suivant les timidités de l'exorde ou les ardeurs de la péroraison. Il traitait ses confrères, son public, les juges, les jurés, avec une aisance et une intimité qui n'étaient pas sans quelque sentiment de sa supériorité et de sa force. Les jeunes stagiaires s'amusaient de ses manies, parodiaient ses tics, ses phrases à effet, l'audace de ses métaphores, mais pas trop haut, car il avait le bec et les ongles. S'il lui arrivait d'être diffus ou prolixe, les magistrats l'écoutaient avec une résignation complaisante, et il était rare que le président lui dît d'abréger. On savait d'avance le moment où il s'essuyait le front avec son mouchoir à carreaux, où, dans le désordre de son geste, ses lunettes remontant jusqu'au bord de sa toque, il profiterait de la circonstance pour savourer une prise. On pouvait prédire la minute décisive où il suppléait aux notes de sa voix, éraillée dans le haut, par une effusion lacrymatoire ou un effet de pantomime, légères taches au soleil, petits ridicules dont on s'égayait à huis—clos et en famille, mais qui ne diminuaient pas d'un millimètre une renommée dont on était fier. Compatriotes et confrères se hâtaient de reprendre M. Gabissol au sérieux, dès qu'un étranger leur en parlait ou qu'un avocat de cour royale faisait mine de le toiser.

Most foreign writers who have given any character of the English nation, whatever vice they ascribe to it, allow in general that the people are naturally modest. It proceeds, perhaps, from this our national virtue, that our orators are observed to make use of less gesture or action than those of other countries. Our preachers stand stock still in the pulpit, and will not so much as move a finger to set off the best sermon in the world. We meet with the same speaking statues at our bars and in all public places of debate. Our words flow from us in a smooth continued stream, without those strainings of the voice, motions of the body, and majesty of the hand, which are so much celebrated in the orators of Greece and Rome. We can talk of life and death in cold blood, and keep our temper in a discourse which turns upon everything that is dear to us. Though our zeal breaks out in the finest tropes and figures, it is not able to stir a limb about us. I have heard it observed more than once by those who have seen Italy, that an untravelled Englishman cannot relish all the beauties of Italian pictures, because the postures which are expressed in them are often such as are peculiar to that country. One who has not seen an Italian in the pulpit, will not know what to make of that noble gesture in Raphael's picture of Saint Paul preaching at Athens, where the apostle is represented as lifting up both his arms, and pouring out the thunder of his rhetoric amidst the audience of pagan philosophers.

The hostile armies met near Venusia, and every day the Romans drew out before the camp of Hannibal and offered battle. But the odds were too great even for Hannibal, and he kept close within his entrenchments. It happened that between his camp and that of the Consuls there was a hill, which Marcellus thought it desirable to occupy. Accordingly he rode up to the top, accompanied by his colleague and a small detachment of cavalry, unconscious that a large body of Numidian horse were lurking in the woods below. In a moment the Consuls were surrounded. Marcellus was run through by the spear of one of these wild horsemen, and fell dead from his horse; Crispinus escaped mortally wounded to his camp. As soon as Hannibal heard of this great stroke of good luck, he hastened to the scene of conflict, and saw with his own eyes his ablest antagonist lying dead before him. His conduct proved the true nobility of his nature. He showed no triumph; but simply drew the gold ring from the dead man's finger, saying, "There lies a good soldier, but a bad general." He then ordered the corpse to receive a soldier's burial. Like his father Hamilcar, he warred not with the dead, but with the living.

Nachdem der Papst die Entsetzung des Kaisers Friedrich II. ausgesprochen hatte, entstand eine tiefe Stille; dann senkten Innocenz und die Prälaten ihre brennenden Fackeln zur Erde bis sie verloschen: so sei des Kaisers Glanz und Glück auf Erden erloschen!

Als dem Kaiser in zahlreicher Versammlung dieser Ausgang hinterbracht wurde, gerieth er in großen Zorn und rief aus: „Mich hat der Papst und seine Versammlung abgesetzt? mich der Krone beraubt? Bringt mir her meine Kronen, daß ich sehe, ob sie wirklich verloren sind." Und als man sie herbeibrachte, ergriff er die eine, setzte sie auf's Haupt und fuhr mit erhobener Stimme fort: „Noch habe ich meine Kronen, und kein Papst, keine Kirchen-Versammlung soll sie mir ohne blutigen Kampf rauben. Welch jämmerlicher Stolz, welche freche Anmaaßung mich, dem kein Fürst auf Erden gleich steht, vom Gipfel kaiserlicher Hoheit mit leeren Worten der Willkür hinabstürzen zu wollen! Aber wahrlich, mein Loos ist besser geworden, als es war: denn derjenige, dem ich wo nicht geborchen, doch Verehrung bezeigen sollte, hat sich als ein ungerechter Richter, als ein so grausamer Feind gezeigt, daß ich nunmehr aller Liebe und Ehrfurcht gegen ihn losgesprochen, daß ich zu Fehde und Haß gegen ihn berechtigt bin."

RAUMER.

II.

Am 17ten August 1786 starb König Friedrich II., bewundert und betrauert selbst von seinen Gegnern, und seines Bruders Sohn Friedrich Wilhelm II. bestieg den Thron.

Dem Könige war von seinem großen Vorgänger die Regierung als eine künstlich berechnete, scharf angezogene Maschine hinterlassen, welche ihren Antrieb ausschließlich von oben erhalten sollte, und keine selbständige Bewegung der Glieder zuließ. Große Staatsmänner konnten unter Friedrichs Selbstregierung nicht gebildet werden; die Minister waren nicht Glieder eines gemeinsamen Rathes, mit welchen der König die großen Geschäfte behandelt hätte, sondern ein Jeder war auf sein Departement beschränkt, in dessen ausschließlicher einseitige Verwaltung der Blick von den großen Angelegenheiten des Staats abgezogen sich an eine engherzige, leicht selbstsüchtige, kleinlich-förmliche Behandlung der Geschäfte gewöhnte. Die Minister handelten daher als Werkzeuge des Königs, so weit es diesem gefiel.

In der nähern Umgebung des Königs befand sich Stein's älterer Bruder, welcher den Gesandtschaftsposten in Mainz erhielt und darin für die Befestigung des neu-gebildeten Bündnisses wirkte. Dieses Verhältniß hatte auf Stein's Stellung keinen unmittelbaren Einfluß; er hegte keinen andern Wunsch für sich, als ernste kräftige Pflichterfüllung in dem ihm liebgewordenen Berufe, und eigene weitere Ausbildung.

During the years which immediately followed the Restoration, a diligence ran between London and Oxford in two days. The passengers slept at Beaconsfield. At length, in the spring of 1669, a great and daring innovation was attempted. It was announced that a vehicle, described as the Flying Coach, would perform the whole journey between sunrise and sunset. The spirited undertaking was solemnly considered and sanctioned by the Heads of the University, and appears to have excited the same sort of interest which is excited in our time by the opening of a new railway. The Vice-Chancellor, by a notice affixed in all public places, prescribed the hour and place of departure. The success of the experiment was complete. At six in the morning the carriage began to move from before the ancient front of All Souls College; and at seven in the evening the adventurous gentlemen who had run the first risk were safely deposited at their inn in London. The emulation of the sister University was moved; and soon a diligence was set up which in one day carried passengers from Cambridge to the capital. At the close of the reign of Charles the Second, flying carriages ran thrice a week from London to the chief towns. The ordinary day's journey of a flying coach was about fifty miles in the summer; but in winter, when the ways were bad and the nights long, little more than thirty. The fare was about twopence halfpenny a mile in summer, and somewhat more in winter.

   Prove, by using any propositions in the First Book, that if two isosceles triangles have the same base, the straight line joining their vertices, produced if necessary, cuts the common base at right angles.

3. In any right-angled triangle, the square which is described upon the side subtending the right angle is equal to the squares described upon the sides which contain the right angle.

   If in your figure BA, CA be the two sides containing the right angle, and BFGA, CKHA, the squares on them, AG, AH being adjacent sides of these squares; show that BG, HC, GH being joined, the triangle GCH is equal to the triangle BCH in every respect, and that the figure GHCB is equal to the rectangle BA, AH, together with half the squares on BA, AH.
4. If a straight line be bisected and produced to any point, the rectangle contained by the whole line thus produced and the part of it produced, together with the square on half the line bisected, is equal to the square on the straight line made up of the half and the part produced.

   Prove that any rectangle is half the rectangle contained by the diameters of the squares upon its two sides.
5. Describe a square that shall be equal to a given rectilineal figure.

   Describe an equilateral triangle that shall be equal to a given square.

7. In any circle, the angle in a semicircle is a right angle, and the angle in a segment greater than a semicircle is less than a right angle, and the angle in a segment less than a semicircle is greater than a right angle.

   The sides of two acute-angled triangles inscribed in the same circle cannot intersect in fewer than 4 points, provided the triangles have no angular points in common.
8. Inscribe a circle in a given triangle.

Archidamus, after ravaging the fertile Thriasian plain, in which he was but feebly opposed by a body of Athenian cavalry, proceeded to Acharnæ, one of the largest and most flourishing of the Attic boroughs, situated only about seven miles from Athens. Here he encamped on a rising ground within sight of the metropolis, and began to lay waste the country around, expecting probably by that means to provoke the Athenians to battle. But in this he was disappointed. The Athenians, indeed, and especially the Acharnians now within the walls, who had contributed no fewer than 3,000 Hoplites to the army, were excited to the highest pitch of exasperation at beholding their houses, their ripening crops, their fruitful vineyards and orchards destroyed before their very eyes. Little groups might be seen gathered together in the streets angrily discussing the question of an attack, quoting oracles and prophecies which assured them of success, and indignantly denouncing Pericles as a traitor and a coward for not leading them out to battle. Among the leaders of these attacks upon Pericles, Cleon, the future demagogue, now first rising into public notice, was conspicuous. It required all the firmness of Pericles to stem the torrent of public indignation.

La notizia che mi dài tu d' un lavoro intrapreso, mi fa un gran piacere, anche per riguardo alla tua salute, giacchè in quest' arte son vecchio, e so per prova che son cose che richiedono piuttosto occupazioni, che rimedi. È poi inutile dirti che piacere mi fa anche la cosa in sè. La poesia era una gran signora che aveva di molti poderi; ma ora, una parte n' ha persi, e per altri v' è de' cattivi segni. La bucolica, ch' era un buon poderino, e che musi di lavoratori ha avuti! s' è smessa di coltivare per la prima e, ho paura, per sempre. L' epopea è sempre in titolo, ma con questo che il coltivarla sia un laboro sovrumano, un' impresa temeraria; e posseder le cose in questa maniera mi par quasi un non accorgersi di non averle più. La drammatica, s' è, si può dire, smesso, per buone ragioni, il metodo vecchio di coltivarla; ma quando si sarà trovato il nuovo, mi farai un gran piacere ad avvertirmene, se sono in questo mondo. Ora, la signorona vecchia, che non vorrebbe rimaner con nulla al sole, e si trova avere ancora del capitale, cosa fa? Dice a' suoi lavoratori:—Diavolo! che nessuno di voi sia capace di trovare un terreno nuovo da dissodare, e farmene un nuovo podere!—Quanti l' intendono, o quanti la possono intendere? Non so: so che tu sei stato uno. Dunque lavora, chè fai sul tuo; e accresci l' entrata della padrona, agl' interessi della quale prendo una gran parte, anche per il gran bene che le ho voluto in gioventù.

(A. MANZONI a G. GIUSTI).

A egregie cose il forte animo accendono
L' urne de' forti, o Pindemonte; e bella
santa fanno al peregrin la terra
Che le ricetta. Io, quando il monumento
Vidi ove posa il corpo di quel Grande
Che, temprando lo scettro a' regnatori,
Gli allôr ne sfronda, ed alle genti svela
Di che lagrime grondi e di che sangue;
E l' arca di colui che nuovo Olimpo
Alzò in Roma a' celesti; e di chi vide
Sotto l' etereo padiglion rotarsi
Più mondi, e il sole irradiarli immoto,
Onde all' Anglo che tanta ala vi stese
Sgombrò primo le vie del firmamento:
To beata, gridai, per le felici
Aure pregne di vita, e pe' lavacri
Che da' suoi gioghi a te versa Appennino!
Lieta dell' ăer tuo veste la luna
Di luce limpidissima tuoi colli
Per vendemmia festanti; e le convalli
Popolate di case e d' oliveti
Mille di fiori al ciel mandano incensi.
E tu prima, Firenze, udivi il carme
Che allegrò l' ira al Ghibellin fuggiasco;
E tu i cari parenti e l' idioma
Desti a quel dolce di Calliope labbro
Che amore, in Grecia nudo e nudo in Roma,
D' un velo candidissimo adornando,
Rendea nel grembo a Venere celeste.
Ma più beata chè in un tempio accolte
Serbi l' itale glorie; uniche forse,
Dacchè le mal vietate Alpi e l' alterna
Onnipotenza delle umane sorti,
Armi e sostanze t' invadeano ed are
E patria e, tranne la memoria, tutto.

No nobler group of ministers ever gathered round a council board than those who gathered round the council board of Elizabeth. But she is the instrument of none. She listens, she weighs, she uses or puts by the counsels of each in turn, but her policy as a whole is her own. It was a policy, not of genius, but of good sense. Her aims were simple and obvious: to preserve her throne, to keep England out of war, to restore civil and religious order. Something of womanly caution and timidity, perhaps, backed the passionless indifference with which she set aside the larger schemes of ambition which were opening before her eyes. She was resolute in her refusal of the Low Countries. She rejected with a laugh the offers of the Protestants to make her "Head of The Religion" and "Mistress of the Seas." But her amazing success in the end sprang mainly from this wise limitation of her aims. She had a finer sense than any of her counsellors of her real resources; she knew instinctively how far she could go, and what she could do. Her cold, critical intellect was never swayed by enthusiam or by panic, either to exaggerate or to under-estimate her risks or her power.

Raudales de sangre costaron á la España musúmica las aciagas reyertas de los desmandados reyezuelos andaluces. Mientras tanto los cristianos alborozados ensanchaban sus fronteras. Alfonso V., Bermudo III. y Fernando I., llevaron sus huestes victoriosas hasta la cordillera que separa las dos Castillas, y con sus incesantes rebatos, algaras y algaradas no les dejaban un solo momento de sosiego. Por último los castellanos se apoderaron de la imperial Toledo y, como dice un célebre escritor, "apagaron la sed de sus alfanas en los aljibes y acequias "de la ciudad."

Reunieronse con este motivo en la gran aljama de Cordoba los mas venerados alfaquíes ulemas y walíes de las provincias meridionales; turbas coléricas, excitadas por los santones, rodeaban el edificio amenazando con desaforada alharaca á los que se oponian á la venida de los feroces almoravides. Ni lejana sombra de buen gobierno hubo durante aquella privanza oprobiosa Ayo habia sido el Duque de Lerma del Rey Felipe: al tanto estaba de sus inclinaciones; y anticipándose á sus gustos le tenia como hechizado. Servida fué sucesivamente la camarería mayor de la Reina Doña Margarita, primero por su mujer, y luego por su hermana la Condesa viuda de Lemos, á fin de inutilizar el influjo de tan excelente señora. Quizá lo pudiera ejercer en su daño la Emperatriz Doña María, religiosa de las Descalzas Reales; mas precavió tal contingencia, dando buen color y pronto remate al designio de que á Valladolid se trasladara nuestra corte. Muy devoto era el Rey Felipe: verdadera pasion mostraba por la caza y el juego; y le divertian comedias y danzas: al hilo de semejantes propensiones, Lerma poblaba sus vastos señoríos de conventos de frailes y monjas: á bramas de ciervos y volatería llevábale á menudo: gruesas sumas atravesaba con Genoveses, miéntras el Rey Felipe hacia lo mismo con sus cortesanos y la Reina Margarita con sus damas: por cualquier motivo imaginaba y disponia encamisadas, saraos sentuosos, toros y cañas con lucidísimas cuadrillas, mascarados de lujo, cenas en que los platos se servian por centenares: y fiestas dió á las veces, cuya esplendidez no es descriptible sino con el tono de las mil y una noches.

Desmienta el cielo las sospechas mias,
Y ojalá no se cumpla el triste sueño
De esta noche fatal, sueño espantoso,
Que me hizo ver en el cumun reposo
A mi hijo, ! ay hijo mio! en ese llano,
Y que un leon fierisimo africano
Con las sangrientas garras y los dientes
Su cuerpo con furor despedazaba.
Aun me parece escucho todavia
Del feroz bruto los rugidos roncos,
Y miro el fuego que en su vista ardia,
Y escucho los suspiros lastimosos
De mi hijo ensangrentado.

Once more Michael Angelo returned to Florence—according to Vasari, in quest of a noble block of purest marble, the fame of which had reached Rome; according to the more truthful Condivi, because he was called home by domestic concerns. Any way, he did not fail to secure the renowned marble. It is well known how this had been injured by the awkward attempts of an inferior artist, who had, more than a century before, began to carve from it a gigantic figure he found himself unable to complete: how it had since been offered to Donatello, who refused to touch it: how Sansirono wished to try his skill, his offer being refused, and how meanwhile the uncouth, unfinished giant had been left lying in the courtyard of some buildings belonging to the cathedral, till Michael Angelo, grappling with the difficulty, produced his colossal statue of David. He was allowed two years for the task, which he accomplished nearly within that time. As we read of his working day and night at the gigantic figure, we are reminded of the following description given by Vignero, who had, at a much later period, watched Italy's great sculptor at work.

MATERIALS USED FOR BINDING ARE OF SUPERIOR QUALITY

Especially the Russia, Calf, & Vellum.

All best Books are made with patent flexible backs, and warranted to open perfectly flat, without danger of the joints or sections giving way.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING ACCOUNT BOOKS.

The Size of Paper may be given in inches.

Description of Paper—Blue Laid Hand-made is always used, unless instructions are given to the contrary.

Thickness of Book—The number of Pages should be given; two pages constitute a leaf or folio, and two leaves or folios or four pages form a sheet.

Pattern for Ruling—Patterns of ordinary Rulings are on next page; if any other be required, a whole sheet should be sent.

Description of Binding—Russia, Calf, Vellum, with single or double Russia Bands, Basil, Forril, half Russia, half Calf, half Vellum, half Basil, with cloth or paper sides.

Lettering—If on Back or Side, or both.

Indexes—Ruled blue lines, unless a pattern for the Ruling be sent, are bound up with the Book, if not ordered in a separate binding. The number of leaves to each letter should be stated.

Paging or Folioing—Care should be taken to state distinctly whether the Book is to be paged or folioed; if paged, the numbers run consecutively, thus: 1) (2; if folioed, both pages in the opening have the same number, thus: 1) (1.

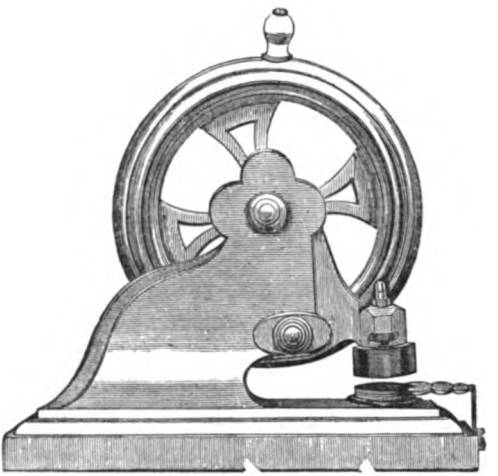
PATENT DUPLEX PRESS.

SIMPLICITY, DURABILITY, CHEAPNESS, POWER.



For Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c.

MESSRS. HARRISON & SONS, Wholesale Stationers, Parliamentary Printers, &c., beg to call attention to the Patent Duplex Press, for Stamping Notarial, Official, Corporate, and other Seals, &c., which for portability, durability, power, and simplicity of construction, and consequent cheapness, is unrivalled.

So little force is needed to work the Patent Duplex Press that it requires no fixing, and a stand is not necessary; it may be placed on an ordinary table or desk.

It is constructed without screw or springs, the power being produced by a cam acting on a bell crank lever. From the extreme simplicity of its mechanism, it can be supplied at one-half the price of an ordinary screw press.

The Patent Duplex Press can be fitted with a lock, so as to prevent its being used by an unauthorized person.

These Presses for durability and simpleness have achieved a certain reputation. The action is simple, and the result all that can be desired. One of the advantages is that an unlimited number of stamps can be fitted to one Press, and as many coloured inks as required by having separate pads, which can be changed instantly. They surpass all others in cleanliness. They are also used for marking Linen.

THE CHROMOGRAPH.

THE CHROMOGRAPH is an ingenious invention which enables any one to produce a number of copies from MSS. written with a special ink supplied with the Apparatus, and is, therefore, invaluable to those who are often requiring reproductions of their letters, invitations. despatches, circulars, plans, or drawings, fifty fac-similes of which can be produced in a few moments, without any knowledge of Printing or Lithography being required. The Apparatus consists of two flat metal boxes lined with a gelatinous composition, which answers the same purpose as the stone in Lithographic Printing, and these cases are separable and close together in the shape of a book.

The MS. to be copied is written on any kind of paper, and with any pen (either steel or quill), with the ink supplied, and the writing or drawing, being perfectly dry, is placed face downwards on the composition and the hand passed lightly over it two or three times, the paper is then pulled gently off (in the same manner as shown in the illustration above), and a fac-simile counterpart of the writing or drawing will be found transferred to the composition. A sheet of paper of any kind is then laid upon the composition and smoothed down lightly with the hand, and after two or three seconds is withdrawn in the same manner as before mentioned, and a clear and perfect copy of the original will be found printed upon it. This operation is repeated as often as required, from eight to ten minutes only being required to produce forty to fifty copies.

Immediately the requisite number of copies are printed, fill the sponge supplied with the Apparatus with clean cold water, and rub the surface gently, and the writing will be speedily effaced, as easily, in fact, as pencil writing from the surface of a porcelain slate.

If the composition is at any time accidentally scratched or broken, it can be remelted by heating it and allowing it to cool, care being taken to prevent dust from settling on it when in a liquid state.

This Apparatus has been supplied and found most useful to Merchants, Secretaries, and most of H. M.'s Ambassadors, Consuls, and Agents abroad.

WORKS BY SIR BERNARD BURKE, C.B., LL.D., ULSTER KING OF ARMS.

 "The list of his works, remembering their nature, and the size, intricacy, and almost endless ramifications of some of them, present an example of rare industry, system, mental energy, and capacity."—Dublin University Magazine.

Sir Bernard Burke's Peerage, Baronet-

AGE, KNIGHTAGE, &c., for the present year. This Peerage and Baronetage is the only one extant which combines, in one volume, the full genealogical or past, as well as the present, account of all the Peers and Baronets of the realm. The Baronetage incorporated with the Peerage, is complete in every detail as to the Lineage and present condition of each Baronet and his family. The Knightage has been much enlarged by the introduction of the family connections of the Knights of the several Orders of the Knights Bachelors, and of the Members of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council. Precedence.—This important subject has been fully dealt with, and the Lists may be relied on as authoritative. The Peers, Baronets, and Knights, and the Companions of the several Orders of Knighthood are placed according to their relative rank; and there is given a Scale of General or Social Precedence, and a List of the Maids of Honour to the Queen, with their relative Precedence. Tables of Precedence of Diplomatic Agencies; Relative Rank of the Officers of the Navy and Army; and Precedence in the Colonies, the Dominion of Canada, and the Indian Empire are also supplied. There will also be found official

Lists of THE ORDER OF THE INDIAN EMPIRE, THE ROYAL ORDER OF VICTORIA AND ALBERT, THE IMPERIAL ORDER OF THE CROWN OF INDIA, THE VICTORIA CROSS, and THE ALBERT MEDAL. The heraldic department includes not only the engravings of the arms of both PEERS and BARONETS, but also the written blazon or descriptions. To this work is added a Key, or Comprehensive Alphabetical List, by means of which every titled personage, and many others, can be easily traced. 1,720 pages, 1 vol. super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £1 18s.

"While most other publications of the kind form most useful indexes to the living members of the Aristocracy, Sir Bernard Burke's handsome volume is perhaps the most useful and valuable companion to the student of English History."—Times.

"The foremost place among works of reference is claimed, almost by traditional right, by Sir Bernard Burke's 'Dictionary of the Peerage and Baronetage,' which still remains the Standard Authority as to Aristocratic Lineage."—Whitehall Review.

Sir Bernard Burke's Landed Gentry

of Great Britain and Ireland, being a record of the Lineage, &c., of about 4,500 Families, with a description of their Arms, Crests, &c. This edition of the Landed Gentry has been compiled from communications made by the chiefs and heads of families from their private papers, traditions and genealogies. The great aim has been to arrive at accuracy, and in order to attain this end, every available source of information has been exhausted, and a correspondence carried on which has secured many thousands of communications from those most competent to improve and correct the work. Apocryphal statements, which had crept into former editions, have been expunged, erroneous particulars and incorrect descents discovered and omitted, and some memoirs excluded as being no longer associated with the possession of landed property. In two volumes, uniform with "The Peerage," "General Armory." 1,800 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

"A work of this kind is of a national value. Its utility is not merely temporary, but it will exist and be acknowledged as long as the families, whose names and genealogies are recorded in it, continue to form an integral portion of the English constitution."—Post.

 A few copies of the Fifth Edition of this important work can still be had. Published in 1871, reprinted in 1875, with Supplement containing nearly 200 Additional Families, and an Addenda, with numerous corrections, together with an Index to Families in Supplement and Addenda. 2 vols., royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £3 3s.

Sir Bernard Burke's General Armory

of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales. Comprising a registry of Armorial Bearings from the earliest to the present time. Containing above 65,000 Blazons of the Arms of Families, Companies, Cities, &c., with mottoes arranged in alphabetical order. This Work having engaged the personal attention of the Editor for a considerable period of time, will be found most valuable not only to the Student of Heraldry and those personally interested in its pages, but to all who are brought into connection with the subject by their professions—such as Engravers, Silversmiths, Coach Builders, Die Sinkers, &c. Uniform with "The Peerage," "The Landed Gentry." 1,250 pages, super royal 8vo., cloth gilt. Price £2 12s. 6d.

"The work may indisputably claim to be one great authority on all things heraldic."—Illustrated News.

"Its authority is unquestionable over the whole range of facts with which it deals: it is the most comprehensive collection ever presented to the world."—Saunders' Irish Daily News.

Karens of the Golden Chersonese.

By Lieut.-Col. A. R. McMahon, F.R.G.S., Madras Staff Corps, Deputy-Commissioner British Burmah. With Map. Demy 8vo., cloth. Price 16s.

 "The volume is intensely interesting. . . . The Author's personal observations, and his diligent studies of other men's writings, have enabled him to give us much fuller accounts than have ever yet been furnished, and as such is a valuable contribution both to circulating library literature, and to the more sober collections of geographers and antiquarians."—Weekly Dispatch.

"The author possesses a good knowledge of native character; his picture of the Karen tribes, enslaved, and despised by their Burmese conquerors, is in striking contrast to his account of the free and fierce Red Karen, untractable and inaccessible in his native mountain home."—Athenæum.

 "This work will prove highly acceptable to sportsmen, for the Author not only explains where the game is to be found, the mode of travel, and the best seasons to hunt, but gives some well-executed photos of the large game. . . . . As a sportsman and a word-painter he is inimitable, and his work should be largely patronized."—European Mail.

This is an attractive volume. . . . Captain Kinloch writes on all these subjects in a genuine and straightforward style, aiming at giving a complete description of the habits and movements of the game. . . . . The full-page illustrations in this book are fine photographs taken from life, and add much to the value of this valuable work."—British Mail.
